BROADVIEW.

—Mr. Neil Wallace has gone down to the Portage for the remainder of the winter. He had nothing to do here and no one to help him and so found the time hang heavy on his hands.

—Mrs. Patterson, wife of our postmaster, died on Thursday morning last. She had recovered from her confinement pretty well when La Grippe laid his hand heavily upon her, and then pneumonia supervened and carried her off somewhat unexpectedly. Mr. Patterson has the heartly sympathy of all his friends.
The lady is doing well.

—Our other invalids are all recovering.

—Our immigration agents are all off east. Boss Wright, Mr. J. Donaldson and Mr. Hillhouse. Many wonder why Boss Wright got a free pass as he is not a farmer, but a carpenter and storekeeper, and has worked most of his time west on the here on Tuesday evening, 28th ult.

It was presided over by Mr. R. S.
Garatt, after short addresses were given by Messrs. R. Halsall and B.
P. Richardson, M. L. A., ex-agent, Rev. J. M. Harrison was called on to address the meeting. He delivered a highly appreciated address on the exhortations of the Bible and work of the Bible Society. At the close of the meeting arrangements were made to form a branch at this place. The depositary is to be in Mr.
W. Hood's store. Officers: Pres.,

INDIAN HEAD.

—The annual meeting of the Indian Head Agricultural Society was held on Thursday of last week.
The secretary, Dan. MacLean, read the report which was a very favorable one and showed a balance in the hands of the treasurer. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: T. Skinner, president; W. Motherwell, 1st vice-president; Jas. Hanley, 2nd vice-president; D. MacLean, was re-elected sec-treas.

—The annual meeting of the Indian Head Branch of the Upper Canada Bible Society was held on Wednesday evening of last week in St. Andrew's Presbyterian church.
In the absence of the president, R.
Crawford, Mr. McLeod was voted to the chair. The report was read by the secretary, C. T. Lewis, and adopted. The sales of Bibles amounted to $28.28 and subscriptions to 977. A resolution was carried urging the parent society to appoint a collector for this district.
The society's agent, Rev. J. Harrison, then delivered an impressive address on the divine inspiration of the Scriptures and the elevating influence of its holy teachings.

FORT QU'APPELLE.

—A. W. Ponton, D. L. S., Regina, has been in town in connection with work on Sioux reserve, Jumping Creek.

—Hugh Cargo, Thomas Murray and Alexander McKee have been appointed by the Agricultural Society to act as immigration agents in Eastern Canada, travelling on passes furnished by the C. P. R.

—W. Wagner, Esq., ex-president of the Manitoba Dairy Association, has been here on Wednesday of last week on "Dairying and Creameries," under the auspices of the Qu'Appelle Agricultural Society, at the close of the annual meeting. Mr. Wagner has created an interest among the farmers and others in the above subjects, which may result in a creamery or cheese factory being erected here should those who have the project in hand meet with the encouragement due such an undertaking. Mr. Wagner returns to Manitoba to-morrow.

MOOSE JAW.

—A telegram was received today by Mr. Hugh M. McDougall, agent of the Temperance Colonization society, asking when two young freight cars named P. McCallum and Wesley Clark left here for Saskatoon.
As they left on January 10 with loads of goods it is feared they may have had a hard time.

—A public meeting was held yesterday for the purpose of hearing J. H. Ross, M. L. A., explain the action taken by the Legislative Assembly at its last session respecting public grants. Mr. Ross spoke for two hours, and gave a full account of his action in the Northwest Assembly. After fully explaining matters in connection with the last session, a vote was passed approving of the independent stand taken by Mr. Ross and the majority of the members. A dinner was given in the evening to the grain buyers and to Mr. Ross, which was a great success, nearly all the farmers from the surrounding country being present.

PROGRESS were being paid up

MOOSOMIN.

—Some evil disposed person some time during this month broke into the house of Mr. Earle on his homestead. The only article missing is a buffalo robe; but not satisfied with taking this, they strewed his groceries all over, took his clock to pieces, scattered his private papers and even attempted to take the stove apart. It is to be hoped that the police will soon have the parties in their custody, and an example made of them.

—At the annual meeting of the agricultural society of this district N. W. Macdonald was elected president, Mr. Gainter, first vice-president; John Mitchell, second vice, Mr. Oliver Nelf, sec-treas.
Considerable interest was manifested by those present in the affairs of the society and the competition for president was every keen. Speeches were given by Messrs. Crisp and McCallum, the society's delegates to the east in the interests of immigration.

OTTAWA, Jan. 31.—A strong appeal of the residents of Battleford district was distributed amongst members to-day. It sets forth the arbitrary conduct of the rebellion losses commission, defends the conduct of residents of Battleford settlement during the uprising, and contends that while claims for losses of disloyal men were paid, those of loyalists were disregarded. One paragraph reads: "The taking of Brenner's furs by Gen. Middleton and the refusal of the Government to give him (Brenner) redress in the matter is an injustice keenly felt by every right thinking man in this district. We have proof that Gen. Middleton took these furs under the pretense of keeping them safe for Brenner. We have proof that these furs were shipped by Middleton's orders to himself and others, and when a deputation brought that matter before the Minister of the Interior we were assured that Brenner would be paid for his furs whether he would be paid for his other losses or not."
It also asks that the Battleford home guard during the late rebellion be put on the same footing as other military bodies and be rewarded by the payment of scrip. Complaint is made that on all previous occasions of laying these matters before the Government they failed to get satisfaction. As British subjects they ask for fair play and pay for the members to use their influence to allow an appeal from the award of the incompetent commission, and to be permitted an opportunity to establish the justness of their claims before a judge of the district court.

EDMONTON.

From The Bulletin.

—Oats are $1.25 a bushel at Battleford. There is not enough grain for seed in that district, which will give the more fortunate Edmonton farmers a chance to dispose of their surplus to advantage.

—The contract for the completion of the new St. Albert bridge has been signed, and the work of tearing down the old bridge has been commenced.
The space upon works of the bridge are badly decayed, but the tamarac piles are still sound.

—A party of Saddle Lake Indians arrived on Monday with oxen and sleighs to take down seed grain for use next spring on the reserves of that agency. The grain was purchased from Jellet and Ottewill of Clover Bar, about 400 bushels in all.
The prices paid were $1 for wheat, 50c for barley and 55c for oats.

LITTLE LUCY'S LUCK.

"I had a disease of the skin for which I tried everything else until I found that without effort, but the first bottle of Burdock Root Bitters I used, I found relief. It gave me great satisfaction."

NEW ADVISORY COUNCIL.

As foreshadowed in these columns a few weeks ago, Dr. Brett, of Banff, has been called on and accepted the task of forming a new Advisory Council to carry on with the Lieutenant Governor the Northwest Government. The names of the other members have not yet been made public, but no doubt they will include Messrs. B. P. Richardson, of Grenfell, and J. F. Betts, of Prince Albert. The fourth man may be Mr. John Secord, of Regina.

DUALISM.

At the last session of the Dominion Parliament a noble band of thirteen members of the House stood out from Canada's Grit and Tory parties, and took their political lives in their hands in resisting the encroachments of a hierarchy that would subordinate all Canada to the medieval institutions of their church and language. The recognized leader of that handful of men was Mr. Dalton McCarthy, then a Tory and closely following him was Mr. John Charlton, a Grit. The events of the year that has passed have clearly demonstrated that these thirteen more really represented the sentiments of the people of Canada, outside the French of Quebec than did all the other two hundred who thought more of the results of their respective parties than to the country. That noble band of thirteen has called forth the admiration of all Protestant Canada, and the action then taken has been fruitful of a more truly national and independent sentiment among the masses of the people who are beginning to see where they may be led by the machinations of the extreme party politicians. Mr. McCarthy himself was led to see some of the great political mistakes that had been made, and he soon publicly declared that at the next session of Parliament (now in progress) he would move for the abolition of the official use of the French language in the Northwest. The Toronto Empire (Government organ) at that time said in referring to Mr. McCarthy's declaration, that such a movement should be originated in the Northwest. Promptly on the very first day of the next session of the Northwest Assembly a motion was introduced to abolish dualism which was subsequently passed almost unanimously all the members voting for it except two who cared not to vote against it.

but abstained from voting. Now Mr. McCarthy has introduced his Bill into the Dominion Parliament, and its second reading has been fixed for Wednesday next. It is expected that more than thirteen will support it at its session but it is feared it will not pass. In introducing his Bill Mr. McCarthy made an able speech characteristic of a high minded and dispassionate statesman. It will be interesting to follow the course of events in the history that is being made by the men who are desirous of building up a united Canadian nationality, that will be free from the internal strifes of race and creed now so prevalent throughout our Dominion.

PRE-EMPTIONS.

Returning to the question of pre-emption, we pointed out last week that the homesteader could still obtain a pre-emption in the United States, and that the new settler always looked for a pre-emption though there might be a variety of reasons why he did not enter for one. Among these is the question of location. A man will enter for a homestead on a cancelled pre-emption near a business centre where an additional 160 acres is not available. Then again a homestead of foreign nationalities are desirous of settling close together and being ignorant of the amount of land required for successful farming will only enter for 160 acres each. The settlers who have been the most successful, and have made the country what it really is, a grand place for agricultural pursuits, are those who secured all the land they could get and went into mixed farming. To such 320 acres of prairie land is a limited holding. While he is bringing his homestead under cultivation he is securing or raising cattle to stock his pre-emption. That class are the most sure and successfully developing the country and we want more of them. If the pre-emption right is not renewed it will be a most serious drawback. It would be far better for the country if the railway lands were opened with a settler on every half section, and railways given cash subsidies, rather than limit the homesteader to 160 acres. We trust all possible pressure will be brought to bear on the Government to continue the pre-emption right. In fact it should never have been allowed to lapse. It ought to have been renewed last year, so that even the possibility of its discontinuance could never have been published abroad. Even should it be renewed at this session of Parliament, injury will be done by our enemies, who will advertise that the right has lapsed, while they will be careful not to state that it is continued. In these days of the keen competition for the immigration of the old world, the Canadian Northwest should not in any way be handicapped. Immigration is our great want and the Government should offer the best possible inducements to divert the stream toward our vast and productive prairies.

Dalton McCarthy introduced into the Dominion Parliament his Bill to abolish the official use of the French language in the Northwest. He delivered a very temperate and dispassionate speech full of facts and arguments. The second reading is to take place on Wednesday next, when it is expected there will be a big fight. We are informed on good authority that all the Northwest representatives will vote against it. If they do so, their constituents should call upon them to resign for ever. We are also informed that Mr. N. F. Davin will speak against it. West Assiniboia is about the best mis-represented constituency in the Northwest. This country is almost unanimous in favor of Mr. McCarthy's bill, but its representatives all belong to the party machine and must represent the machine in preference to the country.

The Regina Leader in its last issue hits its pet, Lieutenant-Governor Royal, very hard, but no doubt unintentionally. It calls for the enforcement of the Northwest Prohibitory law, when its editor knows perfectly well that Royal is doing all he can to prevent its enforcement. In a later issue THE PROGRESS will take occasion to show the methods employed to prevent the enforcement of the law.

We are pleased to be able to state that we can now give the Canadian Nation, a large eight page paper advocating the principles of Canada's New Party, with THE PROGRESS for $2.00 a year. A gentleman who takes a number of papers, has been receiving the Nation through this office, and he says it is the best paper he gets by long odds. The Nation and THE PROGRESS are the best two dollars worth ever offered.

That grand old warrior of the Methodist church, Dr. Douglass, of Montreal, has been indulging in a little plain talk about the morals of certain Canadian public men in both municipal and national positions. The good gentleman seems to be well filled up with facts, and could come down with names and particulars in a highly sensational manner if he liked; but he contents himself with pointing the finger of scorn in general terms, being content that the galled jock should wince in private. Quite properly Dr. Douglass reserves his most scathing denunciations for the voters by whose ballots these unworthy individuals are placed in high positions and kept there year after year. But who does he mean, we wonder? Grip.

According to the Chicago News, a South Dakota business man who has spent some days in the afflicted districts of that State says: "However hard land-sharks and other interested parties may try to keep the true state of things from the people of this country, they cannot be long successful. The successive failure of four years' crops has reduced those even formerly well-to-do to a condition of the sorest distress. Many thousands of families are entirely without means of any kind. They lack the wherewithal to purchase the necessities of life for ready cash, while the ruinous placard confronts them in every store where they once had credit: 'No Trust Given. Goods sold for Cash Only.'" From other sources it is learned that there is terrible suffering and destitution in nineteen counties.

INDIAN POLICE.

The territories have a new set of policemen, who are likely to make things lively for a class of offenders, who have hitherto to a great extent escaped being interfered with. The Indian Department has appointed a number of the most reliable young men on the reserves as policemen, whose duty it is to preserve order on the reserves and generally to look after the Indians and their doings. On the night following their appointment they made a big haul of their brethren on charges of being drunk and lolling and having intoxicants in their possession, most of whom got a warning to be more careful in the future. The system of having native policemen on the reservations in the United States has been found to work well, and will probably prove equally well adapted to this country. The native police wear the comfortable and showy uniform formerly issued to the headmen of the bands.

Little Local Links in the Town's Chain of History.

QU'APPELLE.

—The new Williams sewing machine takes the lead. Call and see them at J. B. Milkins.

—Left at this office a few weeks ago a pair of kid mits. Owner can have them on calling.

—Hawker for moff lost in town on Sunday last. The finder will oblige by leaving it at THE PROGRESS office.

—The official meeting of the Qu'Appelle M. H. school board will be held in the church here on Monday the 10th inst. at 11 o'clock.

—It is time subscriptions to THE PROGRESS were being paid up.

—Mr. F. L. Osler says he expects the agency of the town-site trustees for this town.

—Mr. G. H. V. Bulyn has been appointed Sec. Treas. of the South Qu'Appelle Building Society, vice Leslie Gordon, deceased.

—Misfortunes do not come singly. Mrs. Leslie Gordon has just received word of the death of her brother who resided near Toronto.

—Messrs. J. & G. Brown have purchased the blacksmithing business of Mr. Frank Marwood, and will continue the same in connection with their wagon making.

—We have made such arrangements with the publishers of Canadian Nation as to enable us to offer that paper and The Progress for $2.00 a year. Subscribe now.

—Mr. Frank Marwood is in Winnipeg attending the annual meeting of the Grand Council, R. T. of T. He spent a day with his parents in Southern Manitoba while absent.

—At the last meeting of Qu'Appelle Lodge, No. 34, G. R. M., A. F. and A. M., was passed a resolution of condolence with Mrs. Gordon on account of the death of late Bro. Leslie Gordon.

—The best two dollars worth ever offered—The Canadian Nation and THE PROGRESS. Call at this office or mail us $2.00 and secure two papers that advocate principles that must prevail in the upbuilding of a grand Canadian nationality.

—Owing to the blizzard last evening "Our Boy" entertainment has been postponed till next Tuesday evening. It is to be hoped that the weather will have settled down by that time so as to give all an opportunity of seeing this excellent play.

—The Fort Qu'Appelle people and farmers in the vicinity are arranging to give a bonus for the establishment of a creamery at that place. The farmers in this vicinity have the advantage of such an industry without a bonus through the enterprise of Mr. Caswell.

—The amount of snow fall in this district so far is largely in excess of any previous winter for some years, and it is snowing a little now almost every day or night. A large snowfall this winter means fall slaughtering next summer and a bountiful rainfall, which will bring abundant crops of No. 1 hard.

THE BUTTER TRADE.

Under the above heading will be found an article copied from the Winnipeg Commercial which we commend to the perusal of our readers interested in the trade. It is a careful review of the real state of dairy matters in the Northwest. The article shows plainly that dairy butter will be a low price and it is therefore important that the farmer should consider carefully the best market for the produce of his cows. Happily those in this vicinity have the advantage of a creamery being located in their midst. We have here a first class and fully equipped creamery established by Mr. S. H. Caswell last season, and our farmers should now make all their preparations for marketing their milk in good order. In fact we understand that Mr. Caswell will only accept cream raised on the farms next season. Ice should be put up, and the creamers purchased early, so that no delays (which mean loss) should occur.

MCLEAN.

—A few days ago quite a number of the neighbors assembled at the house of Mr. Geo. Cole to celebrate the birthday of his seven-year-old daughter Ida. After spending a pleasant day, the company sat down to a sumptuous repast prepared by Mrs. Cole. The company separated hoping that such friendships might always exist.

—A short time ago Mr. Peter Yunkard, while digging on his farm for water, discovered some glittering particles a few feet below the surface. On closer examination he found them to be numerous, and some of considerable size, but did not regard them of any value. His attention, however, was drawn to one peculiar piece which he kept. Having tested this piece he believes it to be a gold nugget, worth at least $50. Mr. Yunkard is jubilant over his discovery, but has no idea as to the extent of his find.

The Saskatchewan, published at Prince Albert, has enlarged to eight pages the same size as The Progress. It is a live, go-ahead and ably conducted newspaper.
